

Helen Z. Papanikolas Award for Best Student Paper on Utah Women's History
2019

The Utah Division of State History sponsors the Papanikolas Award to encourage new scholarly research in the area of Utah women's history at colleges and universities. The award is named for Helen Z. Papanikolas (1917-2004), a former member of the Utah Board of State History, who was most noted for her research and writing on Utah and ethnic history, but also wrote fiction, as well as women's history.

Submission Guidelines

- Papers must address some historical aspect of women's lives in Utah.
- The author must be enrolled at a college or university.
- Papers need not be published.
- Papers should include original research that includes primary sources. The paper must be footnoted.
- Papers should not be more than 50 pages long.
- Papers must be received by June 1, 2019.
- Please call or E-mail us on June 2, 2019 if you have not heard directly from us that we received your paper.

The winner receives a monetary award as well as being honored at Utah State History's annual meeting held September 27, 2019 in Salt Lake City.

Submit papers to:

Linda Thatcher
(801) 534-0911
thatcher0911@msn.com