

Helen Z. Papanikolas Award for
Best Student Paper on Utah Women's History
2023

(Revised 26 April 2023)

Utah State History sponsors the Papanikolas Award to encourage new scholarly research in the area of Utah women's history at colleges and universities. The award is named for Helen Z. Papanikolas (1917-2004), a former member of the Utah State Board of History who was most noted for her research and writing on Utah and ethnic history, but also wrote fiction, as well as women's history.

Submission Guidelines

- Papers must address some historical aspect of women's lives in Utah.
- The author must be enrolled at a college or university or recently graduated.
- Papers need not be published.
- Papers should include original research that includes primary sources. The paper must be footnoted.
- Papers should not be more than 50 pages long.
- Papers must be received by June 15, 2023
- Please call or E-mail us on June 15, 2023 if you have not heard directly from us that we received your paper.
- Please put Papanikolas 2023 in the Subject line.
- Please include a mailing address and telephone number.

The winner receives a monetary award as well as being honored by Utah State History.

Submit papers or questions to:

Linda Thatcher

(801) 534-0911

thatcher0911@msn.com or thatcher0911@gmail.com