VISITOR GUIDE

The Utah Historical Society works to foster curiosity about the past, inform the present, and strengthen our shared future. Our agency is made up of several core programs and initiatives, including: Collections & Exhibitions, National History Day in Utah, Women's History Initiative, Local History Services, and Publications.

Help ensure Utah's history and culture are preserved, studied, and shared by becoming a member of UHS. Visit history.utah.gov/join to learn more.

Visitor expectations and guidelines

At the Museum of Utah, we need your help caring for this community asset. Please...

Follow museum guidelines: Pay attention to any rules or instructions. These are in place to ensure the safety and enjoyment of all visitors.

Inspiring Utah

Experience what makes Utah an amazing place to be through the state's distinctive achievements, world-changing innovations, and iconic attractions.

For current exhibits,

Consider others and respect exhibits: Do not touch objects on display unless explicitly permitted. Avoid leaning on display cases or barriers. Refrain from using flash photography. Be respectful of other visitors and employees.

Leave no trace: Help keep the museum clean and well-maintained for future visitors by not eating, drinking, or chewing gum in the galleries, and dispose of any trash properly.

Building Utah

Meet the visionaries, laborers, and trailblazers who shaped the state — from agriculture and mining to homemaking and railroad building.
